

Video 5

Hello,

my name is Jonathan.

What is your name?

It's nice to see you again.

How are you?

I'm fine too, thank you.

Today you will learn how to ask questions and answer them with "yes" or "no".

I'm about to ask you questions and you answer with "yes" or "no" in a complete sentence.

Here is an example:

Is that a ball?

Yes, that is a ball.

Is that a balloon?

No, that's not a balloon.

That is a ball.

Now please answer the questions.

I'll give you a moment to do that.

Then you will hear the correct answer.

Is that cocoa?

Yes, that is cocoa.

Is that coffee?

No, that's not coffee. That's cocoa.

Is that a cash register?

Yes, that's a cash register.

Is that chocolate?

No, that's not chocolate. That's a cash register.

Is that a T-shirt?

Yes, that's a T-shirt.

Are these pyjamas?

No, those aren't pyjamas. That's a t-shirt.

Is that a family?

Yes, that is a family.

Is that an insect?

No, that's not an insect. That's a family.

Is that mathematics?

Yes, that is mathematics.

Is that a medicine?

No, that's not a medicine. This is mathematics.

Is that an engine?

Yes, that is an engine.

Is that a group?

No, that's not a group. That's an engine.

Is that a film?

Yes, that is a film.

Is that a radio?

No, that's not a radio. This is a film.

Is that an elephant?

Yes, that's an elephant.

Is that a salad?

No, that's not a salad. That's an elephant.

Is that a soup?

Yes, that is a soup.

Is that the police?

No, that's not the police. That's a soup.

You did a great job!

Now take a break of about twenty minutes and then watch the video again.

Repeat this exercise until you no longer need to think about the answers.

Then take a break for a day and if you can still do it then try again after a week.

Now you can answer yes and no questions.

Congratulations!
